

Jennifer Darling Introduction

Jennifer Darling is a funny, energetic, educational and inspirational speaker...

At least she thinks so.

She has over 20 years' experience selling air (That's harder than selling ice to eskimos) for media giants CBS, NBC, and Comcast.

When's she's not out trying to convince people that sales isn't a four-letter word,

She's chasing down her Yorkie, Finnegan, who's running around the neighborhood looking for chicks.

Or she's snuggling with her only lap dog, 125 pound Bernese Mountain Dog, Roxy.

Jennifer is here to speak to us today about
